

Stronger Skills—Smarter Students—Successful Schools

You can be a CogRead Hero.

You recommend a school or after-school program to receive a “Turning Point” package.

The CogRead Turning Point Package Includes:

- Registration and Implementation (initial fee waved)
- An AJAX group administrative database with registering, tracking and reporting features
- The Sound Analysis online exercise to build phonemic awareness skills for up to 100 students
- Online cognitive skill screening with the Gibson Test for all students in 2nd grade and above
- Schools that complete the screening for all 2nd grade and above students qualify to receive the BrainSkills Training Exercise Set for 10 free and reduced school lunch qualified students (selected by the school)

The Retail Value of each Donated School Package is $20,000

(The package includes cognitive skill screening for all 2nd grade and above students in a school.

The actual package value will vary depending on the number of students screened.

$20,000 is the value of the package when 300 students are screened with the Gibson Test.)

The CogRead Turning Point Package is currently available for up to 50 schools!
